TRAINING OFFER 2024
European Institute of Public Administration
TRAINING OFFER 2024

Training has been one of the main pillars in EIPA’s work over the decades. Our institute has specialised in short courses that offer busy public sector professionals a concise and practice-oriented understanding of EU policy and legal questions, insight into the broader European context, and other actors’ perspectives. Our participants gain valuable tools and insights that they can use in their daily work.

Our training courses complement the services offered by national and private bodies, since they usually involve multinational perspectives and build on European networks and best practices.

Our courses address a range of learning needs. Some are designed primarily to explain how the European Union works and to help participants from public administration keep up to date with current developments and challenges. Many of these courses also aim to explain to national actors what they need to do to comply with EU rules or take advantage of EU funding. Others focus on skills, such as negotiating techniques.

In all cases, EIPA adopts a problem-solving approach and uses a variety of interactive methods to engage participants in thinking through and applying the information and insights acquired.

Our Training Offer 2024 provides a non-exhaustive list of EIPA’s possible courses this year. It presents the topics on which EIPA can offer expertise, as well as the main learning objectives for each training. Most of our trainings are offered as open-enrolment courses. Other modules are available on demand and can be delivered on location or in the national language. The current schedule of open-enrolment courses, together with specific course descriptions and programmes, is available at https://www.eipa.eu/courses/.

If your organisation or institute has a specific training need, you can create your own course by building on our training offer 2024 as well as our existing courses.

Contact us at info@eipa.eu and we will be happy to develop a tailor-made offer that meets your organisation’s requirements.

<tr>
<td>Knowledge Management (KM) in Public Sector Organisations: The Do's and Don’ts</td>
<td>Learn to assess the level of current KM practices within your organisation. Develop and deploy tailored KM action plans and strategies. Apply the most effective KM tools while designing training and intervention programmes for efficient knowledge transfer and retention. Learn and benchmark from the good practice of other countries.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Common Assessment Framework (CAF)</td>
<td>The Common Assessment Framework (CAF) is a comprehensive quality management model developed by the public sector for the public sector. It operates on the principle that employees, working closely with management, act as the best evaluators to pinpoint an organisation’s strengths, areas for improvement and required actions. With its 9 criteria and 28 sub-criteria that encompass the entire organisation, the CAF offers a user-friendly and cost-free self-assessment framework. Implementing and maintaining the CAF enhances the decision-making process and prioritises a focus on results.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAF Success Decoded: Leadership Commitment and Agile Management</td>
<td>Gain a comprehensive understanding of leadership commitment, agile management principles and total quality management (TQM) tools. Learn how to effectively develop, implement and monitor Common Assessment Framework (CAF) action plans, alongside practical skills and actionable strategies. Amplify your confidence to drive positive change within your organisations.</td>

| Get Ready to Negotiate: Essential Techniques and Negotiation Skills | Leaders and managers often think that negotiation skills training is only important for those who are directly exposed, such as teams and power negotiators in the organisation. The reality is that no matter where in the organisation we are, we are negotiating daily to complete our work.

  Many managers fail to consider that negotiation situations include internal negotiations at first and then external ones. Developing the skills in leaders, managers and team members to successfully negotiate in all situations is the key goal of an effective organisation that knows how to combine outcomes and relationships.

  Improve your analytical and interpersonal soft skills in negotiation processes. Learn how to negotiate a mandate and build a strategy, how to map stakeholders, and how to prepare and conduct a negotiation. |
| Mastering Bilateral Negotiation Skills in a Cross-Cultural Environment | The international environment deals not only across borders but also across cultures. Culture profoundly influences how people think, communicate and behave. Therefore, it affects the kinds of transactions they make and the way they negotiate them.

  Become familiar with:
  ✓ elements of negotiating behaviour which constitute the necessary framework for identifying cultural differences that may arise during the negotiation process;
  ✓ applying this framework in international negotiations to enable participants to better understand their counterparts and anticipate possible misunderstandings. |
| Survival Toolbox for Participating in International and Multilateral Negotiation Processes | Learn techniques that strengthen the capacities of the negotiator evolving in multicultural and multilateral negotiation processes. Build a clear and strategic mandate for international and multilateral negotiation.

  Prepare, implement and debrief your negotiation strategy for a situation involving multiple stakeholders on various issues. Prepare interactions in plenary meetings as well as in caucuses.

  Build and maintain coalitions and be an effective negotiator to reconcile conflicting positions. Learn to communicate the negotiation outcomes. |

Gain an in-depth understanding of how the new programmes have been simplified and consider the impact of the health crisis.
Understand how the selected priorities and planned finances of the regulations have been selected and how they measure performance. |
| New ESF+ Programmes 2021-2027                                    | Understand the European Social Fund Plus (ESF+) regulation for the new programming period 2021-2027 and how to implement new ESF+ programmes, priorities and projects.
Revise what lessons must be taken forward from current and previous programmes.
Compare the current and new programming period requirements and focus on some recent cases of good practice from Belgium, Italy and around the EU. |
| Cohesion Policy Project Appraisal Standards in 2021-2027; Using CBA and the Connecting European Facility. | Become familiar with the new project appraisal requirements for EU co-financed investment projects and the new Economic Appraisal Vademecum of DG REGIO.
Examine the link between the Guide to Cost-Benefit Analysis (CBA) and the CBA requirements of the Connecting Europe Facility.
Learn the fundamentals of the methods, concepts and calculations connected to the guide with direct access to key experts from EIB, DG REGIO and the European Climate, Environment and Infrastructure Executive Agency (CINEA). |
| Financial Management and Closure: Moving from 2014-2020 to 2021-2027 | Develop an understanding of financial management and control of operational programme key live issues in the new 2021-2027 period.
Discover whether these issues are accentuated as current programmes try to absorb the emergency REACT-EU funding and use the flexibility of the CRII and CRII+ amending regulations.
Comprehend how to make management verifications simpler and more efficient and understand the key rules of the new regulations 2021-2027 towards the risk-based approach.
Identify the range of simplified cost options and the verification issues arising, in particular focusing on the necessary audit trail.
Review the steps for closure of current 2014-2020 programmes and understand how to best prepare for this. |

Management of Public Funding
Understand how financial management and audit rules between the 2014-2020 and 2021-2027 programming periods have changed. There is a special focus on financial planning, increasing the use of simplified cost options (flat rates, lump sums, standard scales of unit costs) and the audit issues arising, and anti-fraud measures and protecting the audit trail.

Become familiar with the programme and reporting templates for the new Structural Funds programmes, examining the special link between finance and performance, and how will you report programme progress.

Learn how control and audit differ and look in detail at the audit of accounts, systems and operations for 2021-2027. Highlight key audit issues for Cohesion Policy and the RRF (Recovery and Resilience Facility) such as the most frequent audit issues, and how to simplify audit work.

Get a clear understanding of how to deal with monitoring tasks, output and results indicators, and the Performance Framework.

Discuss how to ensure the quality, accuracy and reliability of the monitoring system and data on indicators.

Understand how to best prepare for the requirement of Article 44.6 of CPR 2021-2027 to submit the evaluation plan to the monitoring committee no later than one year after the decision approving your programme.

Learn how to conduct evaluations during the programming period and which are the two broadly recommended evaluation methods – theory-based and counterfactual evaluations – and the choices for project or programme evaluations on the ground.

“The course delved deep into the strategic utilisation of European funds. Under the expert’s guidance, I gained invaluable insights into funding mechanisms intricacies and learned to create synergies with programs like ERDF and ERASMUS+”

European Certification for Public Procurement Professionals

Our organisation has a wealth of experience in elevating the standards of public procurement for over two decades. Our certification programme in public procurement offers a customised approach that can meet the diverse needs of professionals in the field. The programme provides a comprehensive understanding of the day-to-day challenges and questions that arise in European procurement, and also offers a range of modules for advanced specialisation. To be awarded EIPA’s certification for public procurement professionals, participants need to complete three standard EIPA PP modules within two years. You must participate in three courses and three exams prior to obtaining the certificate. It is obligatory to complete the course mentioned in Module 1, whereas in Module 2 and 3, you only need to choose one of the two courses offered and thus, partake in the examination. EIPA ProcurCompEU Certificate

The European Commission has designed a tool called ProcurCompEU, with a competency matrix and a self-assessment tool to create a tailor-made training curriculum, flexible and adaptable to all organisations. EIPA offers – on request – coaching services to comply with the European Commission Competency Matrix and the Self-Assessment Tool.

We help participants to explore their current public procurement capacity through self-assessment, detect the missing knowledge and skills for future professional goals, and prioritise the needs and selection of tailor-made training. At the end of the process participants will be awarded the EIPA ProcurCompEU Certificate. Become skilled in using the European Commission Competency Framework and Self-Assessment Tool to assess how you can develop your current public procurement capacity to reach your future professional goals.
